

After three years of much anticipation and hoopla, the AMA Women's Motorcycle Conference has finally come and gone, but the memories of the 2009 event are still busy buzzing in our heads. And just as promoted, it was indeed the best to date yet!

Women came in droves to flock upon the utopia which is Keystone – definitely one of the biggest nods we give the organizers as Colorado was the ideal location for an August shindig. The weather was close to perfect and the scenery was inspiring. But equally inspiring, was the sheer number of attendees who rode to the Conference; many who made the pilgrimage for the very first time.

Off-the-Cuff Moments

Tribute: AMA International Women & Motorcycling Conference 2009

Written by Becky Shimek

Photo credit: [unreadable] (and [unreadable])

Photo credit: [unreadable] (and [unreadable])

Tribute: AMA International Women & Motorcycling Conference 2009

Written by Becky Shimek

Watch Helmet Hair's Video Montage!